Treadwell said he is expecting at least 12 teams to be entered before deadline for entries at noon Friday. Teams planning to enter must file registrations with Treadwell.

First game in the tourney is slated for 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and will get underway promptly. Treadwell announced. He said the games would be played throughout the afternoon and into the evening.

Millstead Test Below 5,000; to Test Ellenburger

Operators of the Millstead well south of Hamlin reported the bit below the 5,200 foot mark Tuesday and said no showing had been encountered. The well will be drilled to test the Ellenburger formation.

Dr. W. H. Bryant this week dug the slush pit and set location for the No. 5 Poe well. It was planned to move in the rig Thursday and begin drilling Friday.

The deepening project on the Golda Belle Heidegger well near Neinda reported at 4,700 feet Tuesday and was drilling in hard shale formation with no showing. The well previously had been drilled to 2,800 feet and abandoned.

Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Co., drilling the Pardue & Toler No. 3 was at 3,500 feet and reported formations on a level with the Ellenburger discovery well in the same area.

Texas Pacific, drilling the Port H. Williams test, a south offset to the No. 1, reported at 5,000 feet and said formations were running about 20 feet lower than in the first well.

Fifteen miles northwest of Hamlin Roeser & Peadleton, Drilling the No. 1 Landy Jameson, were below 5,000 foot level and drilling ahead. No showing had been encountered, and operators said it is planned to go to 6,500 feet.

Round Top Oil Co., has filed location for the No. 6 E. A. Hall, an offset to production in the local field. Permit is for 5,000 feet with rotary.

Fire Department Has Drill With Pulmotor

Drill in use of the pulmotor, better known as an "iron lung," was conducted by members of the Hamlin Fire Department last Thursday evening.

Fastest time made in putting on and taking off the apparatus from a "victim" was clocked at one minute and 35 seconds.

The department now has several men trained in the use of the device, and is ready for any emergency use of the machine.

It was emphasized this week that the iron lung should be taken to the victim, rather than waiting to bring the victim to the fire station.

"Sometimes, especially in the case of a drowned person," a spokesman for the department said, "it is highly dangerous to wait for an ambulance to bring the victim to the fire station. And, if artificial respiration has been started, it is always fatal to discontinue it until the person has revived."

The pulmotor will operate on electric light outlet, on battery or with a hand generator.

McCoy Station Is Sold To Lannie Davis Jr.

Announcement of the sale of the McCoy Service Station at Central Avenue and Southwest First Street, was made Monday by Dawson McCoy, former owner.

The station was sold to L. V. "Lannie" Jr., who took over operation of the business Monday.

Davis, who was reared at Hamlin, spent five years from 1942 until 1947 in the army air force. Since his separation from service he has been employed in seismograph work.

McCoy has operated the station for several years, and until several months was associated with his brother in the business.

First Load of Milo Is Sold in City Tuesday

Hamlin's first load of milo maize from the 1949 crop was sold here Tuesday, according to L. H. McBride of McBride and Johnson elevator.

The grain was raised by Mose Jones of east of Hamlin.

McBride said the crop of maize in the Hamlin area will be short this year because of the extreme drought of the past few weeks. In addition, he said, the acreage in this vicinity was cut down this year.

Only 3 More Coolers Needed for Hospital

All patients in the Hamlin Memorial Hospital—except three—are enjoying greater comfort this week because of the kindness and generosity of Hamlin residents, W. L. Fletcher J., chairman of the board of directors, said.

Every room in the hospital—except three—have been equipped with individual air conditioning units, and the extreme hot weathers has been forgotten by all patients—except three.

Fletcher said Tuesday that response for the purchase of the cooling units has been excellent. But three more are needed to equip every room with the devices.

Cost of the coolers, which retail for $49.95, has been cut to $35 by local dealers. Fletcher said patients in the institution have expressed deep appreciation for the gifts, but three patients are still from the heat wave.

Celotex Holds Softball Lead 3 Teams in Tie

Celotex softball team held tenaciously to its lead in the Hamlin softball league this week, as three teams fought it out in a tie for second place in the men's division.

Stamford women, unbeaten during the season, were easy leaders in the women's division. Neinda, with five wins and two losses, was in second place.

Hitson, Sylvester and Hamlin High School Green Sox were in a three-way battle for second place honors in the men's title scrap. Each team had won five games and lost four.

Neinda was in third place with three wins and four losses and McCauley brought up the rear with no wins and seven losses.

In the women's division Hamlin women were third with three wins and three losses; McCauley was in fourth place with two wins and four losses and Hison was in the cellar with no wins and six defeats.

Celotex men took an easy victory over McCauley last Friday evening with a score of 12 to 0. In second game of the evening Sylvester upset the Green Sox 9 to 4 and knocked the high school players out of undisputed second place into the 3-way tie.

Neinda girls lost to Hamlin in a close contest Monday evening when the score was 4 to 3. The win will probably have the effect of putting Neinda and Hamlin into a playoff for second place honors.

In the second game Monday evening Neinda men defeated Hitson 12 to 2.

Hitson men edged out a win of 7 to 6 over the Green Sox Tuesday evening and shoved the locals down another notch in the percentage table.

Sylvester men pulled a surprise victory on Celotex Tuesday evening by whipping the gyp men 9 to 2.

In games scheduled for the coming week, the schedule was arranged, according to Coach Red Burditt, to permit use of the ball park by baseball teams Thursday night.

The Stamford-Hitson women's game, which had been set for Thursday will be played Friday evening, as will the Neinda McCauley men's game. The game scheduled for Saturday night between McCauley and Hitson girls, was moved back to Friday night to give a triple header for that evening.

Monday night the Neinda women will meet Hitson and the Stamford women will play Hamlin.

Tuesday evening the Green Sox will take on McCauley and Hitson men will play Sylvester.

Playoffs will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week for league championships.

Valuation on Property Is Increased 25 Per Cent

Action Deemed Necessary to Provide Much Needed Revenue for Operation of Hamlin

Rev. and Mrs. C. O. Jefcoat, well known evangelists, will be in charge of revival services in the Four Square Gospel Church, beginning Sunday, July 24. Rev. Alice Harrell, pastor of the church, said Mrs. Jefcoat will give a series of messages on Bible prophecy, to which the public is invited.

A blanket increase of 25 per cent in taxable valuation for all real property in the Hamlin city limits, was announced this week by the Equalization Board.

The Board set August 4 and 5 as dates for hearing protests of property owners on the proposed increase in taxable valuation. Those who want to protest the action are invited to appear between the hours of 3 p. m. and 5 p. m. before the board.

The increase in valuation came following an intensive study of Hamlin's finances and needed improvements in the city, Holly Toler mayor, said.

Numerous residents of Hamlin have urged the board to take the action that was announced this week, and only a few have offered opposition to the increase.

Hamlin has had no general increase in property valuation since 1939, it was pointed out recently, and officials have been trying to operate the municipality in 1949 on a 1939 valuation.

Present valuation of all property in Hamlin is listed at $1,465,000 and the tax rate is $1.50 per $100 valuation.

The increase announced this week will give the city a valuation of $1,831,250, which at the present rate of levy would yield a total of $27,938.75 for the general revenue fund.

"Hamlin could not make necessary improvements to keep pace with the growing community as long as the valuation was as low as it has been," Toler said. "One of the numerous improvements for which the valuation least was needed was the DDT spraying machine. We just could not buy and operate this equipment on the old valuation."

Increases in tax bills for individual property owners will be negligible, as was pointed out in a recent article in The Herald. For the average property owner it will amount to less than $10 per year increase.

Cards are being mailed this week to all property owners giving notice of the increase, and advising them of the dates set for hearing, Toler said.

The mayor said it is planned to try the increase for this taxable year, and if it becomes possible to reduce the tax rate without impairing the city's governmental functions that will be done.

Band School Is Slated to Open Here August 1

A summer school for prospective members of the Hamlin High School band will be conducted during the month of August, it was announced this week by Walter P. Chalcraft, recently employed band instructor.

Chalcraft, a recent graduate of McMurry College, said the purpose of the school will be to offer instruction on various instruments to get band members ready for school opening in September.

The instructor said he hopes to have the band ready to play during the fall football season.

The school, which will run from August 1 until August 26, will be open to all school students from the fifth grade through the 12.

A special meeting of parents, who have children eligible for band, will be held in the school auditorium Thursday evening, July 28, at 8 o'clock, Chalcraft said.

The director will discuss the choosing and purchasing of instruments, purposes and policies of the band and other questions that parents will be interested in hearing.

Registration for the summer school will take place Friday and Saturday, July 29 and 30.

Highway Department Approves City Fund

Approval of funds in the sum of $36,700 for widening of central avenue and Lake Drive pavements in Hamlin was voted last week by the State Highway Department.

The project of widening has been pending for several months and Hamlin already has contributed its share of the necessary expense.

The project calls for constructing curbing, gutters and paving on the two thoroughfares, and for building a drainage to take care of surface water that collects at Central and Lake Drive during rainy weather.

No date for starting of the work has been set.

County Receives $2,450 for Use in Polio Fight

Jones County has received a check for $2,450 from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, to be used in providing medical care for polio victims.

The check was sent to C. W. Bartlett of Anson, county chairman of the organization. Bartlett said the money was sent following a plea to the national group that local funds had been exhausted.

The money will be used to pay hospital and medical treatment of victims of the disease now being treated, Bartlett said. The money will take care of all claims against the organization up to August 1.

Most patients from Jones County who have been treated for polio, have been taken to Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene. However, Bartlett said, some of them have been sent to the Scottish Rite Hospital in Dallas.

The Jones County organization has never before asked help from the national foundation. However, Bartlett pointed out, more money has been expended this year than for any other year since organization of the group.

Cost of treatment for a patient is more than $400 per month.

Swimmoree Is Set In Stamford Pool For Thursday

Boy Scouts of the Jones County District have been invited to participate in a "swim-oree" in the Stamford city pool Thursday, July 18, it was announced this week by Crockett Appling of Stamford, general chairman.

Swimming events will begin promptly at 9:30 Thursday morning, Appling said.

The swim will be conducted on a patrol basis. Participants will be classes as competing, standard and outstanding. Trophies will be awarded winning patrols.

Other events include rescue, in which all scouts in each patrol will work together.

There will also be swimming and non-swimming events.

Troop leaders are asked to see that all participants are in good physical condition before entering the meet.

A second swim-oree will be held August 28 at Camp Tonkawa.

Life guards will be on hand at both events to protect the boys who enter the various events.

A mosquito doesn't bite, it stings

Rev. Allan Webb, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Haskell, will conduct a revival meeting in the Fairview Baptist Church near Hamlin, July 29 through August 7, it was announced this week. Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Agnew will be in charge of the music and singing for the services.

There was no intended criticism of the Hamlin City Council in the editorial in last week's Hamlin Herald regarding sanitation in the city.

The council is made up of individuals—public spirited ones—who give freely of their time and effort to handle the business affairs of our town. The men who compose the council are business men who want to see our city grow and prosper, and who are interested in the physical and moral well being of Hamlin.

What the Herald meant by the editorial is that the open toilets in our town are not only unsightly, and unpleasant, but they are a distinct menace to the health of every individual who lives in our city. We meant that unless citizens of Hamlin are brought to the point of standing back of the council this menace will not be abated.

Flies that breed in the open filth of those out houses wing their way into your home and in relays take turns about eating from your table. Such a condition is nauseating to even the most hardy soul, and dangerous to all.

It costs very little to install approved open pit type toilets, and those who plead lack of funds with which to tie into sewer lines cannot be heard to plead the same reason for failure to install sanitary pit toilets.

Members of the city council are willing to do what the people—their employers—want them to do. If you want to see this menace to public health cleaned up, then tell your councilman that you will stand back of him when he starts in to enforce the city's sanitary code.

After all, this is your business. And it is of vital importance.

Just Growing Pains

It's just growing pains that Hamlin's taxpayers feel as the increase in real property valuations begin to affect their pocket books.

Hamlin is growing. And a growing city needs more revenue. Hamlin needs more funds to put in new sewer lines, extend water mains, employ more people to handle bigger jobs, and in general to take care of a rapidly expanding population.

There is only one source from which Hamlin can get revenue with which to meet these growing obligations. That source is the old reliable taxpayer.

Of course the city of Hamlin derives a large revenue each month from the sale of water. But that revenue is pledged to pay off bonds which were voted for building the city's lake and installing its water system. Under the law that revenue cannot be touched for general governmental purposes until sinking fund requirements on the bond issue are met.

And, so, there was but one solution. Hamlin needed more money and Hamlin taxpayers are being asked to contribute it.

The increase of 25 per cent in valuations will mean such a slight difference in the average tax bill that most people will not notice it. To the average taxpayer it will amount to the cost of about two cigarettes per day during the new fiscal year. To even the largest taxpayers it will be a negligible increase.

But the value to Hamlin of such a boost in taxes will be incalculable. Revenue from the increase will enable the city council to do the many needed things that heretofore have been prohibited because of lack of funds.

The Herald—which is a city taxpayer—believes the Equalization Board has acted wisely and rightly in boosting city valuations.

Planned Economy Is Another Name for Socialism, But Without Any Honesty

The term "Planned Economy" is nothing but camouflage—a smoke-screen for socialism. The approach toward "Planned Economy" may be slightly different but inevitably it gets onto the same road, and arrives at the goal of socialism. There it rests for a short breathing spell, only to resume its journey to dictatorship.

However, there is a world of difference between economists and socialists. No matter how mistaken the latter may be, we must attribute to most socialists honesty of purpose and a sincere desire to establish a society in which all will be happy and content. For the avowed "Economic Planner," on the other hand, the same can not be said, for he or she knows that economic planning collectivism, the stepping-stone to dictatorship.

The socialist is not subtle. He may be a bit hazy about just how the wealth is going to be distributed and who is going to do the distributing, but no one can misunderstand his aims and objectives. The economic planner or collectivist cunningly hides his aims and objectives. He uses different methods. First he sneers at business and business men, attempting to arouse the public against the so-called vested interests. When the general public has come to believe that all business is dishonest and every business man is a crook, he engineers legislation putting shackles on business. The next step is to tax business so high that finally in hopeless resignation, it surrenders, throws up its hands, saying: "Here are the keys. Come take the business."

The world trend toward economic planning, or to call it by its right name—socialism—is not new. The Hitlers and the Mussolinis weren't new species of the human family. Throughout history there have been times, many of them, when men became afraid of freedom, and at such times a Hitler or a Mussolini came along to save (?) them from themselves.

The planned economist plans for a state in which all shall be subservient to the state. He paints a rosy picture of the happy, prosperous conditions under which all the people will live when the government plans their every action—when the general populace will respond like so many robots to the every caprice of the despotic bureaucrats. Now, the unfortunate part of such a scheme of things, is that it robotizes those members of society who should not be robotized. It renders inactive all creative brains of a nation. The strong are brought down to the level of the weak. All history shows that the "masses" who have been led by the

Government "Gifts" Seeks to Make Begging Respectable, Economist Says

By DR. ALFRED HAAKE

The mark of proud and self-respecting people is their refusal to take charity. The bread I eat may be stale, dry and even bitter; but if it is bread that I earned, I can eat it with my head high, unashamed and with pride. I am a man and being poor does not make me less of a man.

The pioneers who initiated the beginnings of our country did not ask any guarantees. They took life as they found it and made the best of it. They fought for their lives and worked to bring a living from the meager hills of New England.

Their descendants and heirs have not done so well. Perhaps life has been too easy, and the taste of the flesh too sweet to risk in order to retain the freedom that made them possible.

But it remained for a doctor of medicine, who knew more about pills than he did about medicine, who knew more about pills than he did about economics, to strike the really decisive blow against self-respect. For he made begging respectable!

Dr. Townsend became enamored with the idea that paying people not to work and giving their jobs to others who needed jobs would cure every depression. So he set up a plan to pay people past a certain age $200 a month if they would not work, and create a fund of a billion and a half dollars to pay this pension, by taxing all transactions 2 per cent. So he would also create stable and sure buying power each month.

The billion and a half would be spent with retailers, who would in turn spend them with wholesalers and manufacturers, and would be replaced with the pensioners each month through the government 2 per cent sales tax. The same billion and a half would turn over each month and that would be the total cost of the plan.

Can you think of any nicer way to make begging respectable than thus to save the country from depressions at one modest initial cost of only a billion and a half dollars?

But, it was still begging. The billion and a half dollars, even though the same money each month, bought a billion and a half dollars worth of NEW GOODS EACH MONTH, and the real cost of the plan would not be a billion and a half, but twelve times a billion and a half, or EIGHTEEN BILLION DOLLARS A YEAR. The same dollar can pass from hand to hand, thus financing many transactions, BUT YOU CAN ONLY EAT A SLICE OF BREAD ONLY ONCE.

Dr. Townsend may still dream his dream, and the poor people whose nickles and dimes each month financed one of the greatest hoaxes in history may still yearn for the largess which the kind doctor promised them out of his abysmal economic ignorance. But we did not and will not adopt the plan.

Instead we find new and more effective ways to get rid of taxpayers' dollars. Instead of merely making begging respectable, so-called statesman try to make government charity look like a debt which the Federal Government owes to people who do not like the risks of living. Charity is lifted to the sublimity of a debt which the Federal Government owes to the morally bankrupt folks who prefer to live at the expense of others, those who will join in stealing with religious fervor if only you call it "redistribution of wealth," who will accept lies of you dub them "political strategy," or will shut their eyes to any cause and effect relationship between production and the wages made possible by production.

We need a moral crusade for personal decency. We need a new pioneer spirit that will lift personal character above mere security at any price.

We can still save America, but it will not be through Federal Aid to Education, socialized medicine or any other of the multifarious schemes to give somebody something for nothing at the expense of those who are willing to work for their living.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—Does a veteran who has become eligible for a loan guaranty through separation from service, lose his eligibility by return to active duty in the Armed Forces?

A young cub reporter came into the city room with a photograph the editor had been trying to get for weeks. It was the picture of a young lady who had become involved in a scandal. All sorts of methods had been attempted to get the picture—without success. Males had been bribed, the apartment ransacked. One reporter had even climbed a fire escape to get the photo—but without luck.

Naturally, therefore, when the tyro came in with the prized picture, the veterans wanted to know how he had gotten it.

"I called up and asked her for it, and she gave it to me," he said.

Farm Market Prices Fluctuate as Cotton Leads in Erratic Trends

Livestock, grain and cotton markets revealed the past week's typical mixed price trends, the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration points out in the weekly market summary.

Cotton varied from $5.25 a bale lower at New Orleans to $1.25 higher at Little Rock. New Orleans closed Monday at 31.25 cents a pound; Little Rock 32.75.

Sorghums advanced 5 to 10 cents a hundred pounds for the week, and yellow corn 2 to 3 cents a bushel. White corn lost 7 to 14 cents, and other grains 3 to 5. No. 1 hard ordinary wheat closed Monday at $2.16 1-2 cents a bushel at Texas common points. No. 2 white corn bought $1.88 1-2 to $1.99 1-2 cents a bushel and Milo $2.15 to $2.25.

Rice markets weakened under prospects for a record new crop added to large remaining stocks and slow demand. Most feedstuffs revealed a strong tone, with demand unusually good for the summer season. Hay markets also showed a firmer tone. Peanuts found slow demand, as favorable weather aided the new crop.

Sheep receipts fell off sharply from a week ago Monday as prices of spring lambs stood at $2 to $3 lower levels. Ewes closed about unchanged, ranging from $6.50 to $9.50 for medium to choice. Goats lost 25 cents to $1 at San Antonio on heavier receipts. Dressed spring lamb lost 6 to $9 for the week at New York.

Wool markets felt the summer slump, and little trading took place. With hog prices mostly $1 higher than a week earlier, more hogs arrived at southwest markets this Monday but fewer came in to mid-west terminals. Pigs lost $1 at Oklahoma City. Closing top was $24 at Denver and around $22.50 in Oklahoma and Texas. Pork loins gained $9 to $10 and Boston Butts $3 for the week at New York.

Slightly smaller offerings of cattle and calves in the southwest and midwest sold unchanged to mostly lower than a week ago Monday. Bulls showed the only real strength, while calves recorded the greatest weakness with losses of 50 cents to $2 or more. Some cow beef sold lower for the week at New York, and some steer beef and veal went higher. Best slaughter calves reached $25 at San Antonio and Denver, $23.50 at Fort Worth, and $22 at Oklahoma City Monday.

Good quality large candied eggs brought higher premiums this week. Dallas and Fort Worth paid around 50 cents a dozen for whites and mostly 45 for mixed colors. Denver took large whites at 44 to 47. Extras of 60 per cent A quality arrived at New Orleans at 51 1-2 cents. Undegrees found little demand for processing. Poultry held about steady last week but weakened slightly at Fort Worth Monday.

Liberal supplies of watermelons kept prices on the downgrade, but cantaloupes sold higher. Tomatoes and peaches remained plentiful at slightly lower prices. Sweet potatoes prices declined with increased diggings. Most markets paid higher prices for potatoes. Texas and New Mexico onions sold firm at Fort Worth.

Commissioners to Ask Ballot on Trapper

Voters of Jones County will be asked to vote on whether the county shall employ a public trapper during the coming year, it was announced this week by Roger Garrett, county judge.

The decision was made at a recent meeting of the commissioners court, Garrett said.

Jones County has employed a wolf trapper for the past several years, Garrett said, but the commissioners wanted to have an expression from the people before continuing the employment.

The question will be submitted at the time of the special election on state questions set for some time during the fall.

How to Care for Tuberculous Person Outside of Sanatorium Is Advised

A person who learns he has tuberculosis may not be able to get into the sanatorium immediately. While he is waiting at home for arrangements to be completed for him to enter the sanatorium, he must be cared for properly. At the same time, precautions must be taken to protect others from catching the disease.

Tuberculosis is a communicable disease. The germs which cause TB are commonly spread when he persons with active tuberculosis sneeze, cough, or talk and laugh.

The person taking care of the tuberculosis patient at home must follow the doctor's instructions carefully. In addition to making the patient as comfortable as possible, this means everything to keep others from coming in contact with the tuberculosis germs. Well people should not kiss the patient and use or handle the same articles that he does only with proper precautions.

An important thing to remember is that the patient's sputum must be disposed of properly. The patient should not swallow his sputum; he should spit them in paper tissues and place the tissues in a paper bag. The bags of tissues should then be burned.

The patient should have his own dishes and silverware, kept apart from the family tableware. They should be washed after each meal with hot water and soap, rinsed with boiling water and allowed to drain dry.

The patient's laundry, kept apart from the family wash, should be boiled for about ten minutes and placed in the sun to dry.

Others in the family and friends should not visit the patient any more than necessary, and when they do, should keep at least six feet away from him. They should be warned not to touch things that have been near the patient or handled by him.

The person caring for the patient must take extra precautions. She must remember to keep her fingers away from her eyes, nose and mouth when caring for the patient; wash her hands, fingernails, wrists and arms after serving the patient and wear a special gown or apron, kept for the purpose, during her visit.

Following the doctor's instructions to the letter will make the tuberculosis patient's wait comfortable and beneficial and at the same time protect others from the spread of the disease.

LOOPHOLES in the Law

By WILL WILSON

Past President, Texas District and County Attorneys' Association

(Editor's Note: This is one of a series of short case histories, all taken from court records, showing how legal loopholes often enable criminals to escape punishment in Texas. Will Wilson is chairman of a special seeing committee of the State Bar, which is working for revision of the antiquated Criminal Code and Code of Criminal Procedure in order to eliminate these loopholes.)

Joe was a smalltown tough. He had a reputation of being mean and when he got drunk, which was often, he was meaner than ever.

He was both drunk and mean one day at high noon. He staggered down Main Street in his hometown shouting and shooting a pistol into the air. He was arrested and charged with unlawfully carrying a pistol. The charge read, in part as follows: "... that Joe ... did on or about the 4th day of October, 1939, in the County of Harrison, the State of Texas did then and there unlawfully on or about his person carry a pistol ..."

Joe was brought to trial, but then the charge was dismissed and he was released.

The reason for this action was the word "and" should have been used instead of the word "or" in the sentence about "did then and there on or about his person carry a pistol." Joe couldn't be convicted of the charge because the court ruled this should have read "did then and there on AND about his person carry a pistol."

Technicalities like that one often defeat justice. The State Bar is working for the elimination of such technicalities by seeking to bring about revision of Texas' Criminal statutes.

Mrs. and Mrs. Gene Scott and children, Melvin and Melba Jean, and Terry Haught attended a reunion in Lubbock last Sunday.

Engineers Give Answer to Problem of Texas Weather

Faced with the ups and downs of Texas weather, engineers have produced a new motor oil that stays thin for easy flowing in cold weather, yet stays full-bodied and tough on hot days. The new product, Humble Esso Extra Motor Oil, has the highest resistance to temperature changes of any motor oil in Texas, or anywhere else, according to Humble Company technicians. The technical name for this quality is high viscosity index; Humble scientists add that high viscosity index is a good guide to high motor oil quality. Humble station salesmen are urging customers to drain dirty, diluted oil and refill with new Esso Extra Motor Oil for extra protection. Adv.

Elmer G. Johnson, President of Harlingen State Bank, Harlingen, Texas, writes, on February 20, 1948: "Please send another bottle of Liquid Garlic, also send a bottle to my sister-in-law, Mrs. Hulda C. Dutton, 45 Atwater Terrace, Springfield, Massachusetts.

"I have some good reports to make on the effectiveness of garlic used. Mr. Turner, Texaco dealer here has taken two bottles and is much better, his blood pressure down about 60 points. Mrs. W. F. Nelson, of San Benito, who was in bad shape, is also very much better and her blood pressure down considerably. This Garlic works, and you are doing a fine job of producing it for benefit of those suffering from high blood pressure or heart trouble."

PIGS IN YOUR PARLOR ?

A pig with a taste for the finer things of life might enjoy the luxury of a nap on the best sofa... but it would be hard on the sofa!

The same holds true with motor oils and motors. "Just any" oil in the crankcase of a good motor is as out-of-place as the pig in the parlor.

Good oil maintains the value of a good motor. That is why so many farmers use CO-OP MOTOR OIL. CO-OP MOTOR OILS are made in their own refineries to their own specifications. CO-OP on the label insures you of fine oil at a modest price.

Grasshopper Poison Station Will Close

Announcement of the closing of the Jones County grasshopper poison mixing station in Anson, was made this week. The station, located at a gin in Anson, will close Friday evening of this week.

More than 5,000 pounds of poison bait have been spread in the county in an attempt to rid fields of the pests, according to Bill Lehmburg, county agent.

Calls at the station had dropped to one or two each day, Lehmburg said, and this fact caused the decision to close. The hoppers are said to be scattering, and unless heavy rains come, Lehmburg said it is believed the horde of insects have been conquered.

Cooks Faithful In Supporting State College

Since the opening of Texas Technological college in 1925, O. R. Cook, Post farmer and rancher has been sending his children here. Only during one summer session in the history of the college has there failed to be a Cook on the campus. Josh, the last in the line of 11 Cook children, completed her physical education work last week and will receive her degree in the August commencement.

The first two Cook children received degrees in Tech's first graduating class, majoring in agriculture and home economics respectively.

Gordon, next in line, received a BBA degree, but now practices dentistry. Adrian studied pre-med but was killed near Roswell, N. M. Paul, following in their father's footsteps, studied agriculture.

Sgt. Joe W. Perry and his family, of Camp Chaffee, Ark., are guests of Perry's mother, Mrs. J. B. Turner and Mr. Turner. They are also visiting Mrs. George McCracken. Sgt. Perry will be transferred soon to Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

Mrs. Clyde Huff, who has been ill, has returned to her duties in Malouf's Department store.

Miss Peggy Agee of Nocona has come to Hamlin to accept a position as secretary to Ted Armstrong, manager of the Celotex plant. She formerly was employed in Pecos.

but their hopes were cut short by the recent war and both were killed in action.

O. R. Jr., majored in agriculture also. Kathryn and Johnnie both majored in home economics. In order not to let the boys outdo them, the two girls, ranked as lieutenants, served as naval inspectors during the war. Eight of the children were in the service at the same time and six were overseas at once.

Polly recently received her degree in pre-med and teaches in the botany department at Tech.

Mrs. Cook, not to go without recognition, was elected allstate mother of 1948 and was one of the twelve national mothers in a contest sponsored by the SATURDAY EVENING POST.

That's all the family we will be seeing at Tech for a while, but surely some of the next generation of the Cooks will be here before too many years pass.

Texas Facing Epidemic of Polio, Health Head Warns; Urges Preventative

With the alarming total of 922 Texans having been attacked by the dread disease poliomyelitis, 1949 bids fair to be the worst polio year the State has ever experienced, and health officials in every section of the State are exerting every effort to bring the disease under control.

Dr. Geo W. Cox, state health officer, has reiterated his appeal for every citizen to cooperate in a continuous clean-up program, ridding their premises of all rubbish and trash piles, and any such filth as will afford breeding places for flies and other disease-spreading insects.

"This polio situation will never be controlled without the observance of stringent basic sanitation measures," the State Health Officer declared. "The filth on your premises may cause the disease to attack your neighbor; and the same condition on his premises may cause polio in your home. This problem of controlling polio is one demanding the closest possible cooperation, and until a program of continuous cleaning up is instituted and stringently enforced, we shall continue to face the menace of polio in all sections of the State."

Dr. Cox emphasized to parents poliomyelitis, the comforting knowledge that about 60 percent of all cases of recognized polio recover completely, and at least 25 to 30 percent of recognized cases recover with only minor disabling paralysis.

"Only about 8 per cent of polio victims develop the deadly bulbar type, which affects the nerves at the base, or 'bulb' of the brain," Dr. Cox said. "Most patients suffering from bulbar polio die within a very short time. But it is a comforting thought that 92 per cent of polio patients never develop bulbar polio, and make a partial, or in many cases, complete recovery and are restored to health."

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Bryant left Monday for St. Louis, where they will spend the week on business.
